UNKNOWN NEGRO ATTACKS WOMAN IN HER HOME

Mrs. Ella Isgrigg Victim of Assault by Man Who Escapes

ENTERS HOME WITH ROBBERY INTENT

Demand For Money Meets
With Refusal--Suspect
Arrested

Mrs. Ella Isgrigg, the mother of Mr. Dan S. Isgrigg, is suffering from the effects of a severe nervous shock and injuries received when she was attacked by an unknown negro about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The man had entered the house intent upon robbery and when detected attacked Mrs. Isgrigg. He was frightened away and the police are seeking him.

An entrance was gained to the room of Mrs. Isgrigg through one of the windows, and when she awakened he was standing over her bed. He clutched her throat and demanded all the money in the house, declaring he knew a large sum was kept on the premises. Mrs. Isgrigg was unable to make an outcry. Securing two pocketbooks that were close to the bed, she turned them over to the man, who released his hold on her throat. Mrs. Isgrigg then screamed, and the outcry attracted the attention of Mr. Isgrigg, who was sleeping in an adjoining room.

The negro became frightened and made his exit through the window, running around the house. He was successful in getting away before Mr. Isgrigg could get into the room, and his retreating footsteps were heard in the rear of the building.

In his flight the man dropped his hat, which was found yesterday morning. According to Mrs. Isgrigg, she succeeded in scratching him on the lower lip and also on the neck. This will perhaps lead to the identity of the man if he is captured.

The police were at once notified and a thorough search was made in the vicinity of the Isgrigg home, but without result.

The pocketbooks which were given to him by Mrs. Isgrigg contained only a small amount of change and after emptying them of their contents the negro threw them on the floor.

A close description of the negro was given the police. Mrs. Isgrigg described him as being about five feet eight inches in height, bushy hair, and light in color.

Yesterday morning about five o'clock Patrolman J. W. King arrested Dennis Graves, a negro who gave Carlisle as his home, near the Louisville & Nashville passenger depot and lodged him in jail. Graves was without a hat and acted rather suspiciously. He was questioned closely by the police, but he stoutly protested his innocence of any connection with the case. Mr. Isgrigg was called and after seeing the man declared he did not believe he was the one wanted. He was released from custody yesterday afternoon.

The condition of Mrs. Isgrigg is not considered serious. Her throat is slightly bruised and there are several finger prints.

The police are making every effort to find the man. It is believed to be in the vicinity of the Isgrigg home.

LOCAL OWLS TO GIVE BANQUET WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

The local lodge of Owls will entertain with a banquet next Wednesday evening at the Moose Hall, and invitations have been issued to the members of the order and their friends. After the banquet a dance will be given in the ball room adjoining the Moose club rooms.

PARIS MAN SERIOUSLY HURT IN ACCIDENT.

P. M. (Buck) Branch, of Paris, an employee of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad in the capacity of freight brakeman, is in a serious condition at the hospital in Richmond, suffering from injuries sustained last Tuesday. As a result he may lose one of his legs.

The accident occurred at Berea, and while he was walking along two cars loaded with steel rails. The cut of cars was being set in on a siding and Branch was in the act of stepping from one car to the other when they struck another car on the siding with such force as to cause the rails on the siding to slide against those of the second car.

Branch was entrained between the heavy rails, which had to be removed before he could be taken from his dangerous position. Both legs were badly crushed and it is feared one of them will require amputation. He was taken immediately to the Richmond hospital for treatment.

THEATRICAL.

Alamo.
"The Shadow of Jullit," featuring Miss Marin Sals. Special Kalem in two reels, will be the feature attraction at the Alamo to-day. The hero's rescue of a millionaire from the burning building and a scoundrel's terrible fate when the roof of the raging inferno crashes in, are two of the wonderful scenes in this gripping story. An Essay entitled "Looking For Trouble," also another good picture will be shown.

Columbia Theatre.
TO-DAY—Thanhouse feature in two Reels—Margaret Snow and the Thanhouse Kidlet are featured in this attractive story. The settings are well arranged and the opera scenes are more realistic than is often the case in serene productions. The story occupies two reels.

Miss Snow appears as a dancer who incurs the lasting hate of a manager because she rebukes him so severely for attempting improper advances. Later she comes to America to dance at the Metropolitan. She brings her little child with her. The manager learns that the dancer is in New York, and as a means of revenge kidnaps her child. He then makes it plain how the mother can obtain the little one's release. The baby is locked up in a house on West Twenty-third street, and, being lonely, opens the window and strolls along the balcony to the next house. There she says she is lost, and points out her mother's picture in a paper. The result is a speedy return to her mother and the arrest of the kidnapper. The appearance of the little girl on the stage of the opera house is a very attractive scene. Miss Snow's acting is very excellent throughout.

The title of the other reel is "The Horse Thief." Keystone Comedy.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO HAVE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold its regular meeting on next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Duncan Bell, on High street. At this meeting the regular election of officers will be held and it is requested that all members of the society be present.

BOURBON COUNTY ATTORNEY
SUES FOR COMMISSION.

At Frankfort, Tuesday, County Attorney George Batterson filed suit to test the right of the County Attorneys of the State to take 15 per cent. commission from the inheritance tax collected. The suit will come up in the State Fiscal Court. The suit was entered to compel Auditor Bosworth to issue a warrant to him for $4.21 commission for collecting inheritance tax from Laura Bell Judy.

VINE STREET RESIDENCE IS ENTERED BY BURGLARS.

For the second time within a year, the home of Mr. C. L. Steenbergen was entered Wednesday night. On the latter occasion, however, only fifty cents in money was secured, before the intruders was frightened away.

Fly swatters, instead of flags, as heretofore, may be used as the emblem of the annual money-raising campaign of the Anti-Tuberculosis League this year. The campaign is to be started April 1, and continue to May 15.

PARIS MAY NOT GET INTO THE OHIO STATE LEAGUE

The proposal made to give Paris a berth in the Ohio State League to have fallen through with, as nothing has been heard by Mr. J. W. Bacon, of this city, from President Robert Read, of that organization.

President Read opened negotiations with Mr. Bacon, Tuesday, for the lease of the Paris ball grounds this season and satisfactory arrangements of the directors held in Columbus, Wednesday, Mr. Read was to inform the local owners as to what action would be taken in putting a team in Paris. Up to a late hour last night Mr. Bacon had not received any information and expressed the belief that the proposition had been abandoned. It was learned from an unofficial source yesterday that Mr. Bacon had been awarded the franchise.

For the past several weeks a vacancy has existed in the Ohio State League, due to Hamilton forfeiting its franchise. Paris was then mentioned as a possibility, but the base ball fans of Marion, O., undertook to secure money enough to take over the franchise and launch a club there, for a time it looked as though the Marion fans would be unsuccessful, and in order to prevent any delay in the opening of the league, it was proposed to bring the club to this city.

Even with the matters looking unfavorable at this time, there is still a hope of securing the club here, as there may have been no official action in regard to Marion taking the franchise which was forfeited by the Hamilton club, because Mr. Read, while in conversation with Mr. Bacon, agreed to inform him of the final action the latter part of the week and he may be for some reason withholding the final decision of the league directors. He had intimated that he was strongly inclined to favor Paris, rather than any of the Ohio towns, in which to place the club.

HUERTA ACCEDES TO DEMANDS OF UNITED STATES

Promises to Fire Salute of Twenty-One Guns to Stars and Stripes

SITUATION IS ENCOURAGING

If Salute Is Fired Fleet En
Route to Mexico Will Turn Back

WASHINGTON, April 16.—3 p. m.—President Huerta has promised to fire a salute to the American flag.

The only condition attached was that the Americans fire a salute in acknowledgment.

Officials close to the President said this was in accordance with naval practice of nations and according to precedent.

Word of Huerta's decision virtually to accede to all the American demands came to the White House as the result of an executive session of the Mexican Senate to which Huerta outlined the entire situation.

"The situation is very encouraging," said Secretary Bryan after he received a dispatch from Charge O'Shaughnessy in which Gen. Huerta's attitude was described as yielding.

Mr. Bryan and acting chairman Shively, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, both emerging from the White House smiling.

Unofficially it was stated that if the salute was fired, some of the American warships now speeding to Mexican waters would be turned back.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—With a majority of the ships of the American navy under orders to proceed at once to the Atlantic and Pacific coast of Mexico, the United States Government gave Gen. Huerta final warning that unless a salute was fired to the stars and stripes within a reasonable time, to atone "for repeated offenses against the rights and dignity of the United States," serious eventualities would result.

It was learned that Gen. Huerta, when apprised by Charge O'Shaughnessy of the proposed demonstration of the Atlantic fleet, argued that the episode growing out of the arrest of the American bluecoats at Tampico was a fit subject for arbitration at The Hague, and that he would appoint a commission to investigate the incident. President Wilson, in an emphatic reply through Charge O'Shaughnessy, is understood to have told Gen. Huerta that the time for delay and evasion had passed, and that the American Government would temporize no longer.

Some anti-Americanals hold that insult to the flag and questions of national honor are not subjects for arbitration. All information, official and otherwise, that reached Washington from Mexico City tended to show that Gen. Huerta was unconvinced that the United States was in earnest, and thought the Washington Government the offenses of the de facto Government demonstrations at Vera Cruz and other points were reported.

Developments of the day here showed clearly that a determined and forceful policy had been adopted by the President, which would be backed up by Congress and enforced if necessary by the army and navy.

While expressing earnest hope for peace, the President unequivocally told members of the Senate and House Committees on Foreign Affairs that the offenses of the de facto Government at Mexico City to the dignity of the United States could no longer be tolerated, and that unless Huerta complied with the American demands, the United States would be forced to declare a Pacific blockade shutting off commercial intercourse with the United States, would be fully justified by precedents in international law.

CHARGED WITH DEATH OF WIFE AND UNBORN CHILD

A jury in the Fayette Circuit Court Tuesday afternoon found John Bradley guilty under the indictment for involuntary manslaughter in refusing to allow surgeons to operate on his wife, as a result of which both his wife and an unborn child died. He fixed his punishment at a fine of $25 and costs and thirty days in jail.

On the day that Mrs. Bradley was taken ill five doctors were at her bedside and informed Bradley, according to the evidence, that an operation was necessary to save his wife and child, to which he would not consent, and both Mrs. Bradley and her child died. The testimony showed that Mrs. Bradley insisted and begged that the operation be performed, but her husband objected and went so far in his protestations as to become involved in an altercation with one of the physicians. Bradley pleaded that he thought the surgeons would do more harm than good.

NEGRO MAN HELD UP
AND ROBBED OF $40.00

George Crafton, a negro employed at the home of Mr. Ed. Gorey, was held up Wednesday night by a highwayman and relieved of $40. The robbery occurred on Winchester street almost in front of the home of Mr. Gorey. After the robbery the highwayman escaped. The police secured a description, and believe the man can be located.

GUARANTEED RELIEF
FROM ALL BOWEL ILLS

If your bowels are out of order, instead of using some harsh salt or other physic take a Rexall Orderlie tonight, and tomorrow you will feel great. They taste good and act so easily that there isn't a particle of griping or purging, nor the excessive looseness that follows the taking of salts and most pills. They soothe and strengthen the bowels, promptly relieving the constipation, making it unlikely to occur again.

We don't believe there is any other bowel remedy anywhere near as good and at the same time so easy and so pleasant to take as Rexall Orderlies. We know you will agree with us and believe you will thank us for telling you about them. If they don't satisfy you in every way, come back and tell us and we will give back your money without a word or question. You have no reason to hesitate when we give you the opportunity, as we hereby do to try them at our risk. In vent. packet tin boxes: 10c., 25c., 50c. You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at the Rexall Stores, and in this town only of us—O. S. Varden & Co. (adv.)

OHIO STOCKMAN HERE TO BUY SADDLE HORSES.

Major Kerby Vance, of Urbana, O., has been here for the past several days looking over a number of saddle horses in this section with a view of purchasing several for his own use. Major Vance is a wealthy stockman of Ohio, and is making an effort to secure some good Kentucky horses, which he will show at a number of Ohio fairs this season.

When a man is on the street with his wife he drifts along with a "You're not with me" expression. But if he is with some other man's wife he acts as though he would break if he ever let go of her arm.

The man who wrote about the cheery, hopeful message of the factory whistle was some man who liked to have it wake him up so he could roll over and pound his ear a few more hours.

The only way a man can be agreeable in this world is to be a Wall-Eyed Lion. I know, because I always try to be agreeable.

INSURANCE MEN AND STATE OFFICIALS TO CONFER.

Further conferences held with a view to straightening out the tangle in State insurance affairs will be held in Louisville next Saturday. Assurance has been given that representatives of the various companies which have withdrawn from the State will be in Frankfort to meet Governor McCreary and members of the State Board to discuss compromise grounds on which the writing of insurance may be resumed.

It is expected that a report will be made on the result of the New York conference of heads of companies doing business in Kentucky prior to January 1, at which they will consider the proposal of the Kentucky State Insurance Board.
